“No Fear on the Road with Jesus” (Luke 12:22-34) Jesus implores His disciples, while they are on the road to Jerusalem, to be on guard against the cares of this world turning us away from trusting in God. Jesus said, “Do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat, nor about your body, what you will put on. For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing.” Care and fear can sway the path of human life as we travel on the road with Jesus. Every person naturally cares for himself and his life. We all are naturally filled with concerns about something. But pushed by fear of loss or lust for more we may strive and act contrary to God’s promises. How do we follow Jesus on the road when there are so many enticements to turn in other directions? Jesus promises, “Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom.”

Our Shepherd gathers, nurtures, and serves because Jesus loves.

We join together to worship God because of the love He has shown us in His son Jesus Christ. As we worship, we are assured of our forgiveness. By gathering we are responding to the love of God in Christ Jesus with our prayers and praise.
